NOTICE TO THE PROFESSION

The following Practice Directives of the Nunavut Court of Justice are rescinded effective February 1, 2010:

1. Practice Directive #3 – Court Reporter Policy;
2. Practice Directive #6 – Pre-Trial Conferences;

Explanatory Note:

This practice directive is no longer necessary. The Rules for Pre-Trial Conferences are set out in the Criminal Procedure Rules for the Northwest Territories (see Rules 77-90).

3. Practice Directive #7 – Criminal Procedure Rules and Forms;

Explanatory Note:

The Criminal Procedural Rules outlined in Practice Directive #7 were not proclaimed in force by regulation as required by section 482(4) of the Criminal Code.

The Criminal Procedure Rules of the Northwest Territories were proclaimed in force by Order in Council # SI98-78 and were inherited by Nunavut as secondary legislation pursuant to the provisions section 76.05 of the Nunavut Act.

The Criminal Procedure Rules of the Northwest Territories continue to apply to all criminal proceedings in Nunavut until replaced by new rules made in Nunavut and promulgated under the provisions of the Criminal Code.

4. Practice Directive #8 – Adjournment – Notice of Withdrawal from Chambers List;

Explanatory Note:

The Judges of this Court wish to return to time frames and procedure provided by Rule 390.

5. Practice Directive #9 – Filing by Fax Machine;

Explanatory Note:

This Practice Directive has now been superseded by Practice Directive #18.

6. Practice Directive #12 – The Use of Videoconferencing in Criminal Matters
